COPYRIGHT PERMISSION AND RELEASE FORM

Environmental Systems Research Institute, Inc. (Esri), is interested in receiving permission to use your supplied materials including drawings, illustrations, composites, photographs, slides, negatives, transparencies, video, film, videotape, film footage, voice electronic recordings, maps, graphics, screen shots, or other printed and/or digital artwork, text, data, quotes, newspaper articles, press releases, music, and other materials supplied ("Material(s)") and written description(s) for commercial or educational purposes.

Description of Material(s):

The map describes data on closed roads and highways due to natural processes. The data are related to individual sections and depicted with circular diagrams. It size depends on the number of years when the section was interrupted. It also displays the concrete events during which the section was interrupted. The map also presents landslide and flood hazard based on historical data and computed exposition from digital data of the respective phenomenon. A potential of road and rail track closures from snow cover was estimated.
